

Body of Corporal Ralph Bassett brought home and buried with full military honors on June 17th, 1920 in West Carthage cemetery. This was the largest funeral ever held in this section, Organizations - Bands - Civil, Spanish and World War Veterans, attended in a body. All business in town was suspended for the entire afternoon. He is survived by his father William Bassett (who has since died, however) and by two sisters, Hilda - and Gladys Bassett Kilborn, three brothers, Harold - Everett - and Raymond (who has since died)

TO ALL WORLD WAR EX-SERVICE MEN OF THE TOWN OF CHAMPION, JEFFERSON COUNTY, NEW YORK:

The State Historian is compiling a History of the State of New York in the World War. The records of the Town of Champion should be complete. Will you help to make this true by answering all the questions below, returning the questionnaire to me promptly? Unless you do this, no record of your service will appear in the State History. In years to come this record will be of great value to you and your families. Please co-operate.
