

Alt Text: Hand drawn 18th century map with thin black border that was included in the survey for James McDonald, detailing a tract of 10,000 acres of land in the county of Ulster on both sides of the Shawangunk kill.

Transcription

Map included with return of survey for James McDonald

Series:

A0272

Identifier:

NYSA_A0272-78_V19_p078a_s3

[description of map, top to bottom]

Gunter's Chain

1.0 2.0 3.0 4.0 5.0 6.0 7.0 8.0

Shawungunk Mountains

A small white oak Tree

Arrows [pointing to right, above and below the Kill]

Shawungunk Kill

Little Shawungunk Kill

[right side of lot] North 57 Degrees West 143 D

[bottom right side of lot] North 32.25 East 458 Chains

[Left side of lot] South 89° 35' East 219th .50 Links

[Dots depicting stones with 8 written beside] A Heap of Stone N° 8

[Diagonal line running from top left of map] A Line from Plumb Pont run in the Year 1762